

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Stanley Knox has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Stan is a devoted father to his daughter, Tara; and,

Whereas, Stan loves reading about old trucks and cars, woodworking, and baking cakes and pies; and,

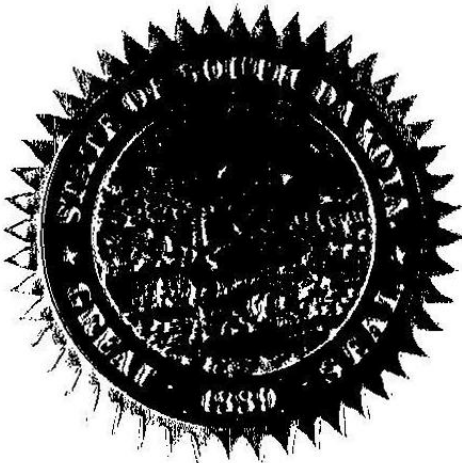

Whereas, On July 8, 2009, after 31 years of dedicated service to the Department of Public Safety Driver Licensing Program, Stan is retiring and taking time to drive buses for River Cities Transit; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 8, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and his many friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
